

Actionable insight™

Actionable Insight is not about telling you what you already know about your business, but about what you don't know. SalesOut will highlight immediate opportunities and create a plan of action to maximise your return on investment.

Where necessary we provide the resources to action the insights; saving you both time and money, and allowing you to focus on growing your business.

SalesOut has been providing unique services to the FMCG/CPG industries since 2002.

With offices in the United Kingdom, United States, Europe and South Africa, SalesOut delivers Actionable Insight to the owners of the world's top household named brands in the retail sector.

SalesOut sources and manages data from Routes to Market, providing visibility on stores that nobody else can get, through our unique Insight Services.

SalesOut analyses retail and wholesale data, executing the actions from insights in store with our field service representatives, cheaper, better and faster.
